Pool/Spa Coating

It has been brought to the Board’s attention that the coating on the spa (and possibly the pool) are past their useful life and in need of resurfacing. Because of this, the spa is closed until it can be resurfaced. At the May meeting the Board selected a contractor to resurface both the pool and spa. The contract has been signed and we are just waiting for the first available date for the work to begin.

Newsletter Editor

We need a volunteer to help put together the monthly newsletter. If you are interested in volunteering for this position, please let us know right away.

HOA Website

Check out our association website at www.oceanaeast1hoa.com

Answers to many of your questions and a copy of documents you might need should be found at our website. Don’t have a computer? No problem! There is a computer with internet access at the Clubhouse.

Accounting

If you have questions about your statement or would like to discuss any accounting discrepancies, please contact us at 760-978-9609. You can also sign up for automatic withdraw by filling out the ACH Debit form on the Oceana East 1 website.

Parking

We are having a lot of issues with people parking on the community streets overnight. Please note that pursuant to the Rules & Regulations, overnight parking of vehicles on the street is prohibited except for new residents. New residents have a maximum of 30 days to park on the street overnight while unpacking. Residents must park in the garage or carport and may not park in front of any fire hydrants, red curbs, garage or mailbox. Guest overnight parking is limited to three (3) nights or up to two (2) weeks with permit issued by Property Manager. There are no designated guest parking spots. We appreciate your anticipated cooperation!
Clubhouse Community Dinner

The May dinner was a melding of youth and experience. The experience was evidenced by multiple birthday celebrations from the ages of 75-101, supporting the theory that OE1 promotes healthy living! Dinner followed with it’s usual success (even with a woMAN down) ...but what could go wrong with Hawaiian chicken and fixin’s, and topped-off with cheese cake! And then came the youth...full of enthusiasm, smiles, and beautiful voices. The StarKidz program provides such a positive, creative outlet for our young folks in today’s tumultuous world. We were certainly entertained with their talents and look forward to seeing them again next year.

The community dinners will take the usual summer break from July through September, but we look forward to getting back together in October for the 2018-19 season. Hope to see you all then. The Dinner Belles
Clubhouse Movies

The Clubhouse Movie Theater will go “dark” (as they say in the theater world) for the month of July. We’ll take a little break and revisit the enthusiasm for the movie activity later in the summer. Thanks for your participation.

What’s in a Name?

The story is that in 1535/36 a small boy was found in a mill in Switzerland. There was nothing with which to identify him. His parents were never found, but he became known as the boy found “in der muehle” (Indermuehle).

The first recorded information about him was in 1557 when at the age of 22, he was studying for the priesthood. By that time, he had acquired the first name of Heinrich. In those days, priests were allowed to marry. It is also reported that he was one of the signers of The Reformation brought about by John Calvin.

My grandfather, Gotleib Indermuehle, just nine generations down from Heinrich, immigrated to America in 1854, at the age of 24.

I was born in Nebraska as Basil Pershing Indermuehle, but in 1926, when we moved to Two Buttes, Colorado, my father, Rudolph, Americanized the name to “Indermill” without legal assistance. Hence, at about 9 1/2 years of age, I became Basil Pershing Indermill. All was fine until I wanted to get a passport so Phyllis and I could go with my brother, Miles, and his wife, Evelyn, to visit the British Isles in 1969. I had to petition the Court in Nebraska to get my name changed from Baby Indermuehle. The doctor had not remembered my name when he filed my birth.

It is interesting that all seven of us children born before 1926 were born as Indermuehles, but I was the only one to have my birth recorded. The other six were born at home and did not receive their birth certificates until 1930 when my Dad had Dr. Verity make out birth certificates for them and with the names of Indermill which we had been using for four years.

It is also interesting that my other four brothers reproduced male children, but none of those males reproduced males. Therefore, if the line is to be continued, it has to be through done through my grandsons. At the moment, my great grandson, Luke, is the only hope that the name Indermill from my father will continue to exist.

Happy 4th of July

Did you know...

★ Thomas Jefferson changed the wording of the Declaration of Independence from "the pursuit of property" to "the pursuit of happiness."

★ Only two men signed the Declaration of Independence on July 4th, 1776 -- John Hancock and Charles Thompson.

★ The Declaration of Independence was a justification for a revolt against the British which included a list of charges against the British king.

★ "Yankee Doodle," a popular American patriotic song, was originally sung prior to the Revolution by British military officers in mockery of the unorganized and buckskin-wearing “Yankees.”

★ The "Star Spangled Banner" was written by Francis Scott Key and was originally a poem stemming from his observations in 1814 concerning the British attack on Baltimore's Fort McHenry during the War of 1812. It was later put to music, though not decreed the official national anthem until 1931.

★ The tune of the National Anthem was originally used by an English drinking song called “To Anacreon in Heaven.”

★ Congress declared July 4th as an official holiday in 1870 as part of a bill to officially recognize other holidays, Christmas being one of them.

★ The oldest continuous Independence Day celebration in the United States is the 4th of July Parade in Bristol, Rhode Island; it began in 1785.
The Declaration of Independence

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,—That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.—Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.
He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harrass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:

For Quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States:
For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent:

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefit of Trial by Jury:

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences:

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & Perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these united Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States, that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do.—And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.
